THE EXCHANGE CLUB OF NASHVILLE BULLETIN

Please join us Tuesday, March 11, 2008, at 12:00 Noon in the Suite Level Club at the Sommet Center.

Our Special Guest Speaker will be:
Mayor Karl Dean

Topic:
“The First 172 Days”

Karl Dean is the sixth mayor of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County. He was elected on Sept. 11, 2007 in a runoff election, following a general election where he also received the most votes.

Dean's priorities as mayor are improving schools, making neighborhoods safer and bringing more and better jobs to Nashville.

Dean first held public office when he was elected as Nashville's Public Defender in 1990, a post he was re-elected to in 1994 and 1998. During that time Mayor Phil Bredesen chose him to serve on the Commission of Twelve, a specially formed crime prevention task force.

Dean served as Metro Law Director from 1999 to January 2007 under Mayor Bill Purcell, advising him on legal issues and bringing people together to solve problems. During his tenure as law director, Dean led the effort to revitalize neighborhoods by closing down over 30 massage parlors and other adult businesses that operated as houses of prostitution.

Dean completed the program for Senior Executives in State and Local Government at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard in 1999. He has served as an Adjunct Professor of Law at Vanderbilt.

Dean was born in Sioux Falls, S.D. and was raised in Gardner, Massachusetts. He earned his undergraduate degree from Columbia University in New York City and then came to Vanderbilt Law School, where he received a J.D. in 1981. He worked in a Massachusetts law firm before moving permanently back to Nashville in 1983 and becoming an assistant public defender.

Dean is married to Nashville native Anne Davis, whom he met in law school. Anne practiced civil and criminal litigation with Bass, Berry & Sims and Neal & Harwell. She has taught at Vanderbilt Law School for nearly two decades, including courses on white collar crime, trial advocacy and legal writing. They have three children: Rascoe, age 20; Frances, age 14; and Wallen, age 12.

Dean has served on the boards of Greenways for Nashville, Leadership Nashville Alumni, the Oasis Center, the National Conference for Community and Justice, Reconciliation Ministries and as President of the Board of United Cerebral Palsy of Middle Tennessee.
