

THE EXCHANGE CLUB OF NASHVILLE BULLETIN

Our Program Committee invites you to join us Tuesday, October 21, 2008, at 12:00 Noon in the Suite Level Club at the Sommet Center.

Guest Speaker:
Coach Rick Byrd,
Belmont Men's Basketball

One of the most successful and respected coaches in the country, Head Coach Rick Byrd has been a model of consistency in leading Belmont's transition from an NAIA institution to a perennial headliner and championship program in NCAA Division-I.

Byrd, who has roamed the sidelines for more than a quarter century, led Belmont to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007-08. In fact, Belmont is one of just six programs in the country to earn an automatic bid in the NCAA Tournament three consecutive years. Moreover, the Bruins became the first member institution in Atlantic Sun Conference history to win the three straight conference tournament championships. Belmont finished the 2007-08 campaign with a 25-9 record - a single-season program record for wins and its fourth 20-win season in five years. The remarkable season included marquee non-conference victories over Big East stalwart Cincinnati and SEC power Alabama, which led to national press in USA Today and ESPN among others. The Bruins then elevated their play to another level during the heart of conference action. Belmont went a program-record 14-2 in the league en route to its first-ever outright Atlantic Sun Conference regular season championship. Then with tournament wins over Campbell, ETSU, and Jacksonville, the Bruins carried a staggering 13-game win streak into the 'Big Dance.' - the program's longest winning streak of its NCAA era and the nation's third-longest entering postseason play.

Predictably, postseason honors were plentiful. Byrd was named Atlantic Sun Conference Coach of the Year, by the league and numerous publications. Moreover, Byrd was selected as one of 10 finalists for the inaugural Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award, an award to be given annually to a Division I head coach who best represents the high standards of the coaching profession: Winning with integrity..
