Bush and confirmed by the U.S. Senate. He took the oath of office in March of 2006 for a term expiring May 18, 2011.

Invocation: Tom Bauer

Welcome New Member Joe King!

Joe graduated from Hendersonville High School, attended Western Kentucky University where he graduated with a BA in Broadcast Communications. He played drums for a living in a band called Government Cheese for nine years; the band was signed to a record label out of Nashville, had a couple of videos on MTV and toured every dumpster with a bar across America. That led Joe to a radio job as the afternoon guy at 103 KDF, back when it was a Rock station...they switched to country music, but Joe didn't.

Joe also pursued a career in aviation, and flew as a corporate pilot for three years. After getting married and having two sons, now 7 and 5, he realized being gone all the time wasn't good and was lucky enough to get an offer to return to radio. Currently, Joe is in his seventh year doing afternoons on 105.9 The Rock.

Joe will be introduced by his sponsor, John Dwyer, on Tuesday, May 15, 2007.

The 80th Tennessee District Convention will be held June 1-3, at the Cool Springs Marriott in Franklin. For more details, and to register visit www.tennesseedistrictexchangeclubs.com.

Meet Exchangite, John Hayworth

What does the Exchange Club mean to you? To me, the Exchange Club is the opportunity first to be a part of and involved in a wonderful service organization with numerous opportunities for giving back in time and resources, and second to reach out to and interact with fellow members of the Nashville business and service community on a regular basis.

Tell us about your family. I am married to the wonderful, and clearly very tolerant, Martha Hayworth. We have been married for twelve years and have two great kids, our daughter Margaret who is 8 years old and finishing second grade at Harding Academy and our son Hedges, who is 6 and will start kindergarten at Harding next year. Rounding out the family is Josie, our three-year old black lab and my number 1 hunting buddy.

Where did you grow up/attend school? I grew up in Knoxville, but went to boarding school at Westminster School in Connecticut starting in the tenth grade. I attended Colby College in Waterville, Maine and then, after getting enough sense back in me to return South, I attended Vanderbilt Law School and have been in Nashville ever since.

Have any special hobbies or interests? Too many according to my wife. Bird hunting, primarily ducks, is clearly hobby number one. But love the golf, fishing and running and . . . All of which takes a back seat to my number one interest of all which is of course spending time with my wife and kids.

Big sports fan? If so, who do you root for? Huge sports fan. Love college football. I am one of those fans Gerry Dinardo never liked: I root for Tennessee and Vanderbilt and love them both. Also big fan of the Predators and Tiger Woods.
